

8th October 2013

Yijie Huang completed the Master in Science in Economics in Trinity College, Dublin in 2013. He received the following grades during his programme of study:

Course	Percentage
Microeconomics I	65
Macroeconomics I	57
Econometrics I	60
Overall Module I Result	61

Course	Percentage
Microeconomics II	58
Macroeconomics II	50
Econometrics II	65
Overall Module II Result	58

Overall Taught Element (Weight - two-thirds) 59

Dissertation (Weight -one-third) 63

Overall Grade 60

Colette Ding
Executive Officer

To be awarded an MSc in Economics a grade of 50 per cent must be achieved in both the taught element and the dissertation component
To be awarded a distinction a grade of 70 per cent must be achieved in both the taught element and the dissertation component
The course overall carries 90 ECTS with 30 ECTS (i.e. 1/3) for the dissertation and 60 ECTS (i.e.2/3) for coursework, with each coursework module carrying 10 ECTS